

Supervision Cycle Process

Professional conversations and “teacher talk” are essential aspects of the teacher candidates’ learning experience; all teacher candidate and cooperating teachers, therefore, will be expected to make time throughout the day for these conversations to occur. The Supervision Cycle Process should occur daily, and consists on the ongoing cycle of teacher candidate performance, teacher feedback, critical reflection and incorporation of feedback.

