Important Information – Spring 2022
EDST 213.0: Student Teaching in Rural and First Nations Schools

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

Education students in the B.Ed. - Early/Middle Years, Secondary, Technical Vocational, and Kinesiology/Education Combined program routes are required to complete EDST 213.0: Student Teaching in Rural and First Nations School. This 0-credit unit, two-week field experience is offered in the Spring Term after Year 2. It involves directed observation and participation in a school classroom.

Please note the following important details about this field experience:

- The 2022 Spring Term offering of EDST 213.0 is planned for Monday, May 2 - Friday, May 13, 2022.
- There will be a required half-day orientation on Thursday, April 28, 2022. A link to sign up for your preferred time (am/pm) will be sent by email closer to the date.
- Registration for the 2022 Spring & Summer Terms (including EDST 213.0) opens on Wednesday, February 16, 2022. You must register for this field experience no later than March 8, 2022. This college deadline will assist with time needed to find placements.

You must register for EDST 213.0 no later than March 8, 2022 using the Registration channel in PAWS.
EDST 213.0, Sec 01
CRN 41430

- You will be emailed a link in mid-February to complete Student Information Form via survey monkey which will be used to help coordinate placements.
- There will be two half day Information Sessions available by end of March 2022.
- A Criminal Record Check (CRC) with a Vulnerable Sector Search is required by all students before starting any field experience. The CRC must be an original document and must be obtained from City Police or RCMP. CRCs expire every six months and, therefore, should be obtained closer to the start date.
- Our goal is to have assigned locations for student placements finalized by mid-April.

If you are not sure if you are required to complete EDST 213.0 this spring, you may contact an academic advisor in the College of Education for assistance:
Email - advising.education@usask.ca
Book an appointment - https://education.usask.ca/students/undergraduate/academic-advising.php